Practicum and Internship Manual

Counselor Education Program

University of South Alabama

Introduction

This document provides the Professional School Counseling Program a description of all important aspects of the requirements and expectations associated with practicum and internship experiences. It is intended to serve as a reference and guide for students, faculty and field supervisors.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the counselor education program is to prepare intellectually informed, interpersonally skilled, and culturally competent professional counselors who promote and provide services that meet proactively and reactively the needs of youth, adults and communities by effectively employing the best practices of the counseling profession. The USA Counselor Education Program is committed to creating a community of learners with perspectives and values that reflect the diversity of the world. We affirm the concept of diversity encompassing and emphasizing both acceptance and respect. We believe embracing diversity requires moving beyond recognition and tolerance to a position of valuing pluralism and celebrating differences. Diversity, pluralism and social justice are foundational constructs that extend throughout our programs to form a keystone of our graduate program. We believe it is our responsibility to provide an educational and professional training environment that supports diverse perspectives and voices in the pursuit of intellectual inquiry. Thus, we are committed to recruiting and educating a diverse student community of scholars. Beyond recruitment, our social justice framework is built in part on a foundational commitment to secure and nurture practicum and internship settings that will provide our students multicultural clinical experiences, thereby enabling students to broaden the base and practicality of their cultural counseling skills.

Collectively, the Counselor Education Program faculty is committed to educating graduate students to become professional school counselors who can enrich the lives of students in the Greater Gulf Coast region and throughout the nation. Our goal is to educate and prepare students to become self-reflective, competent, ethical, data-driven, culturally responsive, and passionate school counselors. Our graduates are expected to act as collaborative school leaders who serve to enhance the educational and career opportunities for all students. We are committed to preparing our students through a comprehensive developmental model consistent with standards advanced by the American School Counselor Association (www.schoolcounselor.org), the Transforming School Counseling Initiative (www2.edtrust.org/edtrust/), and the Alabama State Department of Education (www.alsde.edu).

PROGRAM GOALS

The USA Professional School Counseling Program prepares students to:

1. Develop and demonstrate knowledge of the foundations of school counseling including history, current trends/issues, roles, functions, professional identity, leadership and advocacy strategies, and related laws and legislation agenda at all levels of governing.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of the process-outcome relationships inherent in the work of a professional school counselor, as described in the model framework of the American School Counselors Association's (ASCA) National Standards (academic development, career development, and personal/social development).
3. Make effective use of technology routinely employed in the work of a professional school counselor, especially software and programs related to instruction, assessment, and exploration (e.g., career information).
4. Demonstrate cultural sensitivity, competency, and responsiveness in their work.
5. Demonstrate the ability to develop, implement, and evaluate a comprehensive, data-driven school counseling program that reflects the content and processes highlighted in the ASCA National Model.
6. Demonstrate effective and meaningful individual counseling, and group work (including task groups and psycho-educational groups structured to facilitate the achievement of classroom guidance goals).
7. Demonstrate appraisal skills, specifically including the selection, results analysis and interpretation of a wide variety of assessment instruments with all appropriate personnel (students, parents, teachers, administrators).

PURPOSE OF PRACTICUM and INTERNSHIP

The Practicum and Internship experiences are designed to satisfy requirements for professional training as stipulated by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) accreditation standards. There is a fundamental difference in emphasis between the Practicum and the Internship. The Practicum stresses counseling skills. Individual and small group counseling activities should be the student's primary focus while on site. The Internship is intended to provide students with a broad-based practical experience in school settings. This experience is designed to have interns relate academic and theoretical learning to field experience.

Interns are expected to assume a broad spectrum of counseling roles and functions. The intern is asked to participate in as many activities as feasible in the settings that are similar to the responsibilities of an employed counselor. The Internship also provides students with evaluative feedback on their knowledge, attitudes, and skills with specific client populations. Since interns have previously received training in counseling, the staff and the clientele at the placement site should benefit from the services.

An Experiential Portfolio: Student's Documentary Record of Practicum and Internship

All school counselors, including those in training to become professionals, are expected to maintain several types of important student records, including cumulative performance records, and also appropriate confidential, counseling records. School counselors have accrued a long professional history of service as key record-keepers for educational institutions, pertaining not only to the information associated with student academic performance, but also with confidential behavioral records. That service continues to be important for students, teachers, and parents. In addition to carrying out responsibilities associated with traditional record-keeping, graduate students in practicum and internship will also be expected to maintain records of their own specific cumulative experiences in a number of categories, including types of counseling services provided (i.e., curriculum-based instruction, small group leadership, crisis intervention, parental involvement, assessment, indirect service, and other key categories as determined in accord with university-based supervisors and school-based supervisors). This latter set of required data will serve as a key baseline for the counseling supervision provided practicum and intern students by counseling supervisors on-site and at the University. In addition, this record of participation will enable students to submit accurate records to licensing and certification agencies and associations.

Applications

School Counseling students are required to complete an Application for Practicum and Internship which must be approved by Dr. Amy Upton, Coordinator of the Professional School Counseling Program, before registering for either clinical experience.

Practicum (3 credit hours) is required to be completed during the spring semester.

Internship requirements (6 credit hours) can be fulfilled over 2 semesters, typically required to be completed over the Fall and Spring semesters following after the practicum experience prerequisite is successfully met.

Application Deadlines: Practicum – December 1 Internship – April 1

All students are required to have professional student liability insurance when enrolled in Practicum and/or Internship courses. Professional insurance provided by the American Counseling Association and/or the American School Counselors Association adequately meets our program requirements. Students should visit the web page of the above organizations to learn how liability insurance may be obtained.

SITE PLACEMENT CRITERIA

The University of South Alabama's Professional School Counseling program is dedicated to preparing professional school counselors who are self-reflective, competent, ethical, data-driven, culturally responsive, and passionate. In line with this dedication, placements will be approved only where the site, and the primary on-site supervisor reflect the mission of the program.

Aligned with CACREP requirements, our program requires the following of site supervisors:

- Master's degree in counseling with a school counseling emphasis
- Certification as a school counselor
- Two years of experience in current assignment
- Active/Involved with professional associations

In order to work with a school counselor who is not currently on the approved list, students will need to request that he/she apply to become an approved site supervisor. Application forms are included in this handbook. This application needs to be submitted to the Professional School Counseling Program Coordinator for approval by the Counselor Education Program faculty. If this application is approved, a notification of acceptance will be sent directly to the school counselor. The Coordinator will talk with each on-site supervisor at the beginning and at the end of each semester of the student's placement in their site.

USA students will also be responsible for communicating Counselor Education Program expectations and requirements (application procedures, assignments, taping of sessions, etc.) to the site supervisor. The steps suggested as a means of assuring Practicum and Internship course expectations are communicated properly, are included in this handbook. However, the student's job is to discuss fully all program expectations with the site supervisor. Specific objectives for the on-site experience should be outlined and affirmed as acceptable by the student, supervisor and the program coordinator. Students should be prepared to work on a number of objectives during clinical training.

As a professional courtesy, students should also provide the site supervisor with a schedule of the beginning and ending dates of the Practicum/Internship as well as dates (holiday and the like) when USA students would not be expected to be present at the site, unless stipulated before the beginning of the on-site experience. In addition, students should submit a planned weekly schedule to the site supervisor, and updated as necessary.

During the semester, the university supervisor may meet on-site with you and your site supervisor. During such visitations, the university supervisor will discuss your progress, course expectations, and performance issues, if any, with the on-site supervisor. The University supervisor may also wish to observe you conducting one or more counseling sessions, if observation is possible.

Students must meet a minimum of one hour per week with their site supervisor. The content of these sessions is determined jointly by the student and the site supervisor. The format of supervision will vary; some site supervisors will wish to review taped critiques in addition to the university supervisor's review, while others may wish simply to consult directly with the student counselor. In any case, students have the responsibility of ensuring that they do their part in meeting on-site expectations to the point that they receive the best possible supervision. If concerns arise, students should first talk with the site supervisor. However, if problems persist, students should relate such concerns to the university supervisor.

Evaluation forms outlining the program's counseling expectations should be distributed to the on-site supervisors at the first of the semester, and then completed by the site supervisor at the end of the semester, and discussed with the practicum and/or internship student.

General Requirements

Practicum

The Practicum experience is supervised by the university instructor and the on-site Professional School Counselor. Students enrolled in the Practicum are required to accumulate a minimum of 100 clock hours. Of these 100 hours, a minimum of 40 hours must be in direct service work with students appropriate to one's Program of Study. Emphasis is placed on developing individual and group interaction skills. The Practicum student is to have (a minimum of one hour per week in supervision with the site supervisor, one and one-half hours per week in group supervision, (and if required, one hour of supervision per week with a program faculty member or doctoral student supervisor working under the supervision of a program faculty member.) Supervision hours count toward the total number of Practicum hours.

The student's progress in the School Counseling Program is reviewed by the faculty at the time of Practicum completion. If the progress is judged satisfactory, registration in Internship will be permitted. If it is judged as unsatisfactory, registration will not be permitted, and a conference with the student will be arranged by the student's adviser. The primary purpose of the conference is to develop interventions which the student should complete prior to progressing further in the degree program.

Students should refer to the course syllabus for the specific requirements of their Practicum. Students are also required to keep a log book describing their field experiences, the date of the experience, the amount of time spent at it and the student's reactions to the experience. It is required that all students attend all practicum meetings.

An Experiential Portfolio: Student's Documentary Record of Practicum and Internship

All school counselors, including those in training to become professionals, are expected to maintain several types of important student records, including cumulative performance records, and also appropriate confidential, counseling records. School counselors have accrued a long professional history of service as key record-keepers for educational institutions, pertaining not only to the information associated with student academic performance, but also with confidential behavioral records. That service continues to be important for students, teachers, and parents. In addition to carrying out responsibilities associated with traditional record-keeping, graduate students in practicum and internship will also be expected to maintain records of their own specific cumulative experiences in a number of categories, including types of counseling services provided (i.e., curriculum-based instruction, small group leadership, crisis intervention, parental involvement, assessment, indirect service, and other key categories as determined in accord with university-based supervisors and school-based supervisors). This latter set of required data will serve as a key baseline for the counseling supervision provided practicum and intern students by counseling supervisors on-site and at the University. In addition, this record of participation will enable students to submit accurate records to licensing and certification agencies and associations.
