

Contact Name: Dr. Elizabeth M. Adams
University of South Alabama
Department of Speech Pathology & Audiology
HAHN 1119
Mobile, AL 36688-0002
Phone: 251-445-9378
Fax: 251-445-9376
Email: eadams@usouthal.edu

Column Ad:

The University of South Alabama (USA) is accepting applications for a 12-month, tenure-track Audiology faculty position starting in January 2010. The rank is assistant/associate professor, and salary is competitive. Requirements include a Ph.D. (ABD considered) and CCC-A. Primary duties include teaching at the B.S., M.S., Au.D., and Ph.D. levels, development of a personal research program, and mentoring student research. Qualified candidates with interests in any area of Audiology are encouraged to apply. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. The USA Program is accredited in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology by CAA of ASHA and operates a very active Speech and Hearing Clinic. The Clinic serves as a major teaching and research source for the program. The Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology is one of eight departments in the College of Allied Health Professions. As an academic health center, USA's Colleges of Allied Health Professions, Medicine, and Nursing, teaching hospitals, and clinics offer a wide variety of research opportunities and teaching support for faculty and students in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology. USA is located in the historic and vibrant Gulf Coast city of Mobile, AL. Submit letter of interest, vitae, and three letters of reference to Dr. Elizabeth M. Adams, Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology, University of South Alabama, HAHN 1119, Mobile, AL 36688-0002. Ph: 251-445-9378, fax: 251-445-9376, Email: eadams@usouthal.edu

Website: <http://www.southalabama.edu/alliedhealth/speechandhearing/>

The University of South Alabama is an Equal Opportunity/Equal Access Employer.